

The phone call is inevitable concerning every wedding party. About two weeks before the wedding, the prospective bride (not the groom), calls our store and asks if everyone in the wedding party has come into the store to be measured for their tuxedo. Invariably, cousin Jimmy never stopped by. Then the panic sets in. Cousin Jimmy has to be tracked down and told to get to the tux shop. Then there is a follow-up call to Jimmy. It's just one more thing for the bride to get upset about.

Formal Expressions has solved this problem. We've done it with our IN HOME FITTING SERVICE. It's something we have been doing for over ten years with ever increasing success and customer satisfaction. In fact, most brides and grooms turn the event into a party, which makes what could have been another headache into a pleasurable and even memorable experience.

Here's how it works. The prospective bride and groom come to the showroom and choose the styles for everyone in the bridal party. They then make arrangements with one of our sales staff for the in home fitting date. The fitting day is usually two to three months before the wedding date.

Formal Expressions will come to your home with all the sizes in the tuxedo styles you have chosen. Whether we will be fitting a two year old ringbearer or a father of the bride who wears a 54 extra long, they will be fitted that evening with the actual coat they will be wearing on the day of the wedding. And it doesn't stop at the tuxedo jacket. In order to guarantee the best fit after the tuxedos are delivered, everything gets fitted to perfection right down to the shoes, shirts, vests and pants. No one in the business provides such a comprehensive service.

Once the party is measured, our experienced production staff will tailor, clean and press your tuxedos to perfection. Then 2 days before the wedding, they will be delivered to a location designated by you for pickup by the bridal party. This provides an opportunity to make any necessary adjustments ensuring that there will be no last minute surprises. If any adjustments are necessary, a simple phone call to our sales staff and arrangements will be made to correct and/or deliver new garments. Formal Expressions will also pickup the tuxedos on the Monday after the wedding. ALL AT NO ADDITIONAL CHARGE.

Any questions about this service can be answered with a simple call to our experienced sales staff. No appointments are necessary when choosing the styles for the wedding party. We always have a full staff on hand to advise you on your choice of tuxedos.

What is Savvi?

Savvi Formalwear is a cooperative of the finest formalwear retailers in the world. The organization is collectively managed so that customers are seamlessly served across the United States and Canada. To insure the very best service for every customer, all locations are family owned and operated by members in their respective communities. And all locations are served by local warehouses so that tuxedos look their best when you wear them for your event.

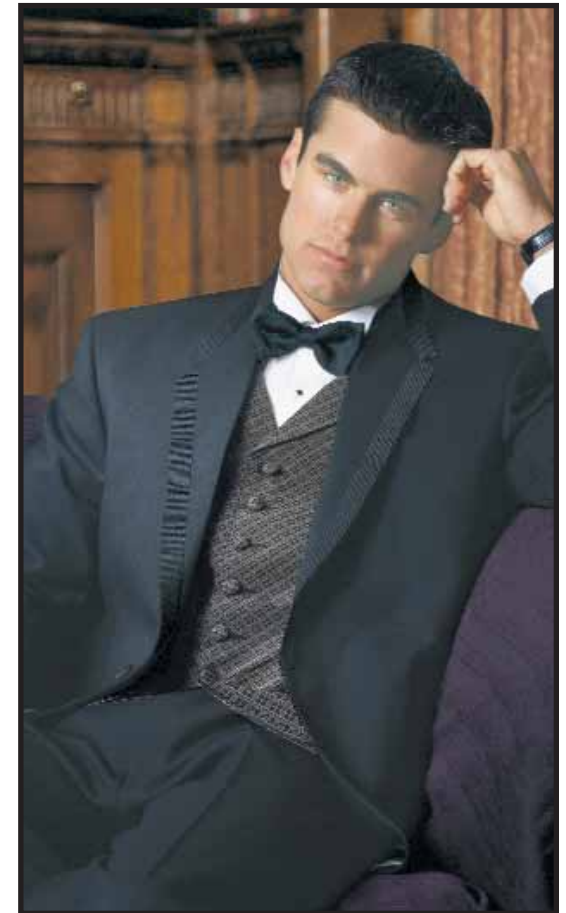

The cooperative model allows us to realize large company benefits regarding such things as buying power, resource pooling and national branding, while simultaneously providing the exacting levels of customer service only possible with local, entrepreneurial ownership. It is this combination of corporate-level management and innovation, combined with the passion and commitment of our local store owners, that makes shopping at Savvi a unique and satisfying experience.

Savvi Formalwear is the only tuxedo provider that backs its product and service with a satisfaction guarantee. So fly in your guests, not your tuxedos and leave the formalwear to us.
